

Soaring

by Lydia Jerabek

I went soaring up into the air, past the clouds, and over a mountain. Things flew in and out of sight when I realized I wasn't alone, and someone was holding me, guiding me through all corners of the world. I then noticed that I was a passenger of someone with immense power and I was scared. I looked up into the eyes of someone I feared would drop me and realize it was Superman. He smiled and said hello as if he was seeing me for the first time. I was shocked, but I was flying with the fastest person on earth who had sworn to protect the innocent! Superman then went into a fast dive down toward the ground and I closed my eyes, Superman was smiling at me and he said, "Goodbye and I hoped you enjoyed my view of the world, Lydia." He flew away leaving me safe in my backyard. I never knew why he took me flying, but all I know is I had the greatest adventure of my life with my favorite person on earth.
